Application Conditions

Brochure 2

April 2020

What is AusGeoTIFF?

AusGeoTIFF's are raster images of the Australian Navigational Chart Series in GeoTIFF format. For more information, see Product Information, Brochure 1.

What are the Licensing Conditions?

You will be licensed to use AusGeoTIFF images for the purposes you state in your AusGeoTIFF Application Form, provided that you do not wish to use them for navigation.

By signing a licensing agreement, you will also agree to protect AusGeoTIFF (and TIFF) images from illegal copying.

How do I select my chart images?

You can review the available charts from the Australian Navigational Chart Series on our website www.hydro.gov.au and navigating to the Australian Chart Indexes. You can then provide a list of the AusGeoTIFF charts you are seeking with your application form.

How long can I use my chart images?

You will be licensed to use AusGeoTIFF images for three years. However, you may cancel your licence and return the images at any time. If you wish to use your AusGeoTIFF images for more than three years you can apply to renew your licence.

How do I renew my licence?

You will be sent a renewal offer one month prior to the expiry date of your licence. By renewing your licence you will incur a small Renewal Fee to cover the administration costs associated with extending your licence. See Brochure 4, Pricing for more information.

What Site Licenses are on offer?

AusGeoTIFF site licenses are offered in the following configurations:

- two to five sites,
- six to ten sites
- and greater than ten sites.

For information on site licence prices, see Brochure 4, Pricing.

What happens when my licence expires?

When your licence expires you will be required to return your original disk containing the data or advise that the data has been destroyed.
