

This topographic map depicts the Maluro area in Sabah, Malaysia. The map features a yellow land area and a light blue water area. Key geographical features include:

- Water Bodies: Danau Iralaloro (lake) in the upper left, and the Selat Jaco (strait) to the east.
- Mountains: Gunung Siracate (760m) in the upper right.
- Islands: Pulau Jaco to the northeast.
- Coastline: A detailed coastline with numerous elevation points (e.g., 541, 217, 118, 339, 468, 457, 524, 738, 849, 831, 860, 1017, 888, 908, 1197, 1205, 1422, 760, 894, 1179, 487, 500, 581, 467, 392, 126, 200, 10, 25, 31, 107, 99, 15, 35, 139, 72, 87, 15, 903) and contour lines.
- Settlements: Maluro (marked with a black square) and Tanjung Lore (marked with a red square).
- Infrastructure: A road network is shown with dashed lines.
- Other Features: A small island labeled 516 is located in the water. A small area near Tanjung Lore is highlighted with a red square and labeled 903.

(139.1 x 122.2mm)